CITY SNOW PLOW crews, above, were out early this morning clearing streets for what could be the last time of the season. Winter parking restrictions were lifted Thursday, but Police Chief Richard Frederick urged residents to continue to observe the restriction until plows have an opportunity to clear the streets. The wet snow made driving hazardous throughout the area. The U. S. Weather Bureau said there is a chance of more snow tonight and Saturday. Temperatures were expected to drop. Cambodia Presses Consolidation Plan

P.O. Workers Get Warning From Blount

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration and Congress have told the growing ranks of striking postal workers they must return to work before there will be any consideration of their demands.

"The only thing that can be done is for the postal workers to go back to work and start moving the mail," Postmaster General Winton M. Blount said Thursday after an hour-long secret session with the House Post Office Committee.

"The essential thing is to get the employees back to work," he said, "and then deal with the problems that we face."

The White House said "the thrust of the activity" in the administration is to cooperate with Strike plans have not hindered the Escanaba Post Office but the weatherman halted most carrier operations today, a spokesman said. Elsewhere in the state, postal workers struck at East Lansing, Dearborn, Dearborn Heights, Birmingham, Oak Park, Franklin, Taylor and Lincoln Park. Other down-state crews voted to strike but held off immediate walk-outs.

all seven major postal unions that have condemned the walk-out and called on striking locals to go back to work.

Presidential Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said Thursday although the administration is concerned about the strike's effect on the public welfare there are no plans so far to mobilize military or National Guard units to move the mail in the New York-New Jersey area.

House Post Office Committee Democrats earlier issued a statement declaring Congress will not act under strike pressure and blaming the walkout on Nixon for delaying a general federal pay increase six months.

Similar warnings came from the chairman of the Senate Post Office Committee, Wyoming Democrat Gale W. McGee, who said the workers stand to lose more than they will gain by striking.

The dissident workers demanded the present pay scale ranging from $6,176 to $8,442 a year be boosted to a range of $8,500 to $11,700.

Return Of Sihanouk Could Mean Trouble

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — The two new strong men of Cambodia's government pressed ahead today with their campaign to consolidate their control, stepping up their attacks on ousted Prince Norodom Sihanouk and ordering strong measures against any display of opposition.

A communique announced the government was ready to use force if Sihanouk tries to return to power.

Government newspapers carried extensive attacks on the deposed chief of state, accusing him of immorality and assailing his wife, Princess Monique.

Gen. Lon Nol, the premier and armed forces chief, and Deputy Premier Sirik Matak, were reported to fear that opposition to their takeover may develop.

The government proclaimed a "state of danger," virtual martial law, and suspended all constitutional rights for six months. Government sources said any persons suspected of subversion or of being a threat to the government would be arrested.

Meetings Banned
The government banned all meetings of more than three persons and was exercising strict control of all newspapers.

Some persons who used to hold government office and who do not like the leadership change have been removed and placed under house arrest.

Matak charged there is a lot of subversive activity by Vietnamese living in Cambodia and distributing anti-Cambodian pamphlets. He warned Cambodians not to associate with them.

There are tanks and soldiers in Phnom Penh's streets.

Despite the uncertainty about possible opposition and counteraction everyone seems relatively calm.

Airport Closed

There is some concern that Sihanouk may try to return to the country from Peking and there is considerable speculation that this is why the government is keeping the airport closed.

The communique declared "our army has the right to turn to arms and actions in all

Nixon Education Plans Falling Short Of Goal

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's program for higher education falls short of meeting the needs of the coming decade, according to a leading congressional education expert.

Rep. Edith Green, D-Ore., chairman of the House higher education subcommittee, says Nixon has failed to take into account the financial plight of the smaller private colleges or the need for expanded facilities to meet growing enrollments.

She also said Nixon's emphasis on aiding students from the lowest income families may work to the disadvantage of other needy students.

In his higher education message sent to Congress Thursday, Nixon called for revising the student aid program to give the low-income student the same ability to pay for a college education as students from families earning $10,000 a year.

Although specific legislation has not been sent to Congress, it would appear Nixon plans to shift most federal support to the neediest students and let the others turn for assistance to long-term private loans backed by a federal guarantee.

The federal government now provides some sort of financial help for 25 per cent of college students, the overwhelming majority now receiving either direct or subsidized loans come from families with incomes below $10,000. Students from the poorest families already receive outright grants.

Mrs. Green's concern about Nixon's new approach was shared by some educators, particularly those dealing with student financial assistance.

Apartment Blaze Claims Lives Of 3

WESTLAND (AP)—Two women and a man who was confined to a wheelchair were killed Thursday night when fire raged through an apartment building in this Detroit suburb.

The victims were Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Day and Clydene Bousquet, 52.

Mrs. Bousquet's husband, Glenn, 55, was in critical condition suffering from burns and smoke inhalation.

Bousquet, believing his wife had reached safety, was injured trying to get the crippled Day out of his blazing apartment, according to WayneWood Apartment manager Bob Essman.

The fire apparently began in the Days' first floor apartment and swept upward, breaking through the roof, according to Fire Chief Ralph Savini. He said occupants of the second floor of the building escaped unharmed.

Draft Protesters Playing It Cool

By The Associated Press

Several hundred demonstrators have been arrested in anti-draft protests ranging from passing out flowers to lie-ins at draft board entrances which highlighted a week-long campaign in cities and towns across the nation.

Many of the arrests came Thursday when demonstrators attempted unsuccessfully to block the entrances to draft boards. Nearly all of the confrontations were nonviolent.

Boards Close Down

Selective Service officials closed down draft boards in San Francisco, Hollywood and San Rafael, Calif. and San Antonio, Tex. Although some activists hailed the closings as a victory, local draft officials said they were closed to catch up on work, not because of the demonstrations.

In New York City, where officials said the 96 draft boards were closed to avoid confrontations, 182 protesters were arrested anyway, including writer Murray Kempton and Anna Bennett, 66, wife of the president of the Union Theological Seminary.

Flowers Handed Out

Three ministers handing out flowers outside the Indianapolis

draft board were arrested on charges of interfering with the lawful use of a public building. The ministers, from the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), also had attempted to conduct a memorial service for the Vietnam war dead.

In Raleigh, N.C., Beth Conway Mullin, 24, a student at North Carolina State University, was one of two anti-draft protesters arrested when she splashed blood from a plastic bag on the steps, walls and door of an induction center. She left a group of 25 pickets to splash the blood just as a bus discharged a group of inductees at the door.

100 Persons Arrested

About 100 persons were arrested in Syracuse, N.Y., when part of a group of 2,000 demonstrators prevented a busload of inductees from taking preinduction physicals at the local armed forces examination station. Police said the demonstrators were nonviolent and cooperative.

The demonstrations were sponsored by the New Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam, a coalition organization, in conjunction with local peace groups.

Some final events in the week-long anti-draft crusade were scheduled today.

Happy Spring! More Snow

Happy spring!
Old Man Winter began delivering his final punch of the season this morning before he officially yields to spring at 7:57 p. m. and before he eased up late this morning had dumped four to six inches of snow on the area.

Heavy, wet snow began falling early today and the U. S. Weather Bureau forecast in issuing heavy snow warnings for the Upper Peninsula and northern lower Michigan said "three to five inches or more" could accumulate.

Roads in the area were snow covered and slippery and automobiles throughout Escanaba—particularly on Ludington St. where the crown in the center of the street caused problems for motorists trying to back from angle parking spaces—were having difficulty moving.

Many residents already have removed snow tires in the spring-like weather of the past several days and Thursday Escanaba Police Chief Richard Frederick announced that winter parking restrictions had been removed.

Frederick today urged residents to observe the winter restrictions, however, until city crews have an opportunity to clear up the snow.

Plow crews were at work this morning.

State Police said the storm was general across the Upper Peninsula and hazardous driving conditions existed on all roads.

Temperatures in northern Michigan hung just below the freezing mark, but warmer readings in southern Michigan turned the snow to rain.

North Central Airlines' morning flight to Escanaba was canceled and resumption of service was dependent on the weather and runway conditions.

All schools were closed at Menominee and some rural buses for Escanaba Area public schools were slowed in morning runs because of the storm.

Several school systems in the area were closed early because of the weather. Rapid River and Perkins students were dismissed at 10 a. m., Big Bay de Noc at noon, Escanaba at 12:30 p. m., Rock at 12:45 and Gladstone at 1.

The annual sale of Easter Seals by lettermen of Escanaba Area High School and Holy Name High School will be postponed to Good Friday afternoon and Saturday morning.

March 28, reports Elmer Besonen and Dave Kallio of the Easter Seal Society.

The sale, which nets several hundreds of dollars for the Easter Seal Fund each year, had been scheduled for today but was held over because of today's un-springlike weather.

Loses Rights

Young Georgian 'Without Country'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thomas Glenn Jolley, a young Georgian who fled to Canada to avoid the draft and then renounced his U.S. citizenship, has become a man without a country.

Stripped of his American citizenship and without any other, the 26-year-old Atlanta resident was ordered Thursday to leave the country within 90 days.

In handing down the decision, the Board of Immigration Appeals laid the groundwork for a Supreme Court ruling that could affect the fate of thousands of young Americans who fled the country because of opposition to the draft and the Vietnam war.

The next step for Jolley's lawyers will be an appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals in Washington. Then the case most likely will be carried to the nation's highest court.

Jolley, a North Carolina native who married an Atlanta girl, went to Canada on March 31, 1967. A week later, he asked his draft board for classification as a conscientious objector—a request denied April 18.

Then on May 16, 1967, he went before the U.S. consul at Toronto, declared "I do not wish to break the laws of the United States—These (draft) laws conflict with my present beliefs," and formally renounced his citizenship.

Jolley returned shortly after his renunciation statement and has lived in Atlanta since.

The majority of the five-member board held this was a voluntary act. Whether or not the renunciation was based on conscientious scruples, it said, didn't make the deed any less deliberate.

The lone dissenter, Anthony L. Montaquila, said Jolley, by his renunciation, "did not acquire a new nationality but became a 'man without a country'."

"Whatever else may emanate from (Jolley's) conduct in violating the draft laws, criminal proceedings or otherwise, his continued attempts at reclassification, both before and after he left the United States, his stated reasons at the time of renunciation and his letter to the draft board, evince a clear intent that his act was involuntary," Montaquila wrote.

Thus the issue focused on whether Jolley voluntarily renounced his citizenship or whether he did so under conscientious objections so strong they "overbore his free will."

Judge Carswell Still In Range Of Enemy Guns

WASHINGTON (AP) — Briefly stymied by the other side's refusal to come out and fight, Senate opponents of Supreme Court nominee G. Harrold Carswell are probing a broad front seeking a way to keep their case alive.

What one Carswell opponent described as a carefully planned series of moves climaxed Thursday in just the kind of reaction hoped for—a slashing attack by a Southern senator on two influential federal judges who refused to openly back the nominee.

The attack by Democrat Russell B. Long of Louisiana was a departure from the Nixon administration's strategy of making a case, then retiring to the sidelines to let the opposition swing at thin air.

Clergyman Gets Into Draft Act

ROYAL OAK (AP)—A Southfield clergyman presented a petition to a draft board official Thursday asking her to submit to a citizen's arrest on a charge of violating the Constitution by conspiring with others to support an "illegal, undeclared war in Vietnam."

About 15 war protesters watched as the Rev. Richard E. Venus, pastor of Southfield United Methodist Church, read the petition to Miss Patricia Hare, executive director of Draft Board 323 in Royal Oak.

Miss Hare refused the petition's request and also refused comment.

Assistant Police Chief James Soule refused to arrest Miss Hare when called upon to do so at the scene.

"I do not consider this a legal document," Soule told the Rev. Mr. Venus, Soule said the group told him they would seek further legal assistance from the Oakland County prosecutor's office.

Weather

ESCANABA AND VICINITY—Moderate to heavy snow with 3 to 5 inches of accumulation today. Colder with highs today and Saturday in the low 30s. Chance of occasional light snow tonight and Saturday. Low tonight in mid 20s. Escanaba's high Thursday was 46 above. The sun sets today at 7:01 p. m., and rises at 6:50 a. m., Saturday.

C&NW Is Guilty

The Chicago and North Western Railway was found guilty on two of three charges under the city nuisance ordinance in Delta County District Court Thursday.

Judge Dean Shipman ruled that the defendants "did then and there produce noise, smoke, soot, cinders, nauseous acids, fumes and gases, in violation of section 130.13 of the code of ordinances of the city of Escanaba."

Fines of $100 were imposed on each count, plus $25 for costs, and $3 for judgment fees.

C&NW waived jury trial on March 11 and Judge Shipman, after hearing and reviewing the case, which took place Tuesday and Wednesday this week, found the defendants guilty as charged for the days of Feb. 13, and Feb. 14, and dismissed the charges for Jan. 1.

North Escanaba residents were told by C&NW officials the nuisance problem will be corrected.

The action against the North Western under the city ordinance was brought by Earl Reno of 1406 N. 16th St., Joseph Sabor of 1609 N. 16th St., and Mike Kolich of 1330 Sheridan Road.

Noted Geologist, Dr. Hussey, Dies

Dr. Russell C. Hussey, nationally recognized for his studies in geology, some of which were conducted in Delta County, died in Ann Arbor on March 1 at the age of 81.

Dr. Hussey was associated with the University of Michigan as a student and later a professor for more than 40 years. As professor in historical geology and vertebrate evolution, some of his field studies and doctoral research were done in Delta County on the Stonington Peninsula and the Escanaba River valley.

He was author of a text book "Geology of Man." His studies in the Delta County area began in 1920 and continued to 1948.

Dr. Hussey is survived by his widow, the former Minnie Simmons of Houghton. He was born in Mendon, Ohio, in 1888.

Fire Truck To Be Overhauled

The Escanaba City Council, meeting for 18 minutes Thursday night at the Civic Center with Mayor Cecil B. Chase presiding, among other business approved a proclamation designating April 1 as Census Day in Escanaba.

Mayor Chase also voiced congratulations to Holy Name High School's basketball team for advancing in Class B tournament play to the semifinals downstate.

City Manager George Harvey was authorized to spend $3,000 from the equipment fund for overhaul of a 1954 fire truck. A township fire truck will be located for the period the city truck is in the factory.

Council deferred action to April 16 when the "new" Council will consider a recommendation of the Planning Commission for approval of a preliminary plat of the Goulaiss Subdivision No. 2.

Mayor Chase was reappointed by the Council to the County Tax Allocation Commission; an amendment to the parking meter ordinance to provide for setting aside funds for off-street parking was adopted; and the purchase of aluminum cable costing $6,089 from Lake Shore, Inc., was approved.

The Council approved at the request of the Liquor Control Commission an SDM (beer and wine) license for Ronald Koth who is opening a store at 517 Ludington St.; and approved reclassification of a license to Class C (beer, wine and liquor) for Ward's Tavern.

MANCHESTER, Eng. (AP)—Working class mothers of children with speech defects in parts of Lancashire are wary of letting their children go to speech therapy classes. They're afraid their youngsters will pick up Etonian accents—that they will sound like students at the well-known English prep school, Eton.

A report by a group of leading British therapists recommends that more should be done to persuade parents that the courses are designed only to deal with stammering and other speech problems.

Senator Schweigert State's No. 4 Man

LANSING (AP)—Sen. Thomas F. Schweigert, R-Petoskey, officially became Michigan's acting lieutenant governor today.

Schweigert gained the new title as Gov. William G. Milliken's ceremonial chief deputy under a law, effective today, which designates the Senate's presiding officer as acting lieutenant governor. Schweigert has been president pro tempore of the Michigan Senate.

He now follows Secretary of State James M. Hare and Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley in the line of succession to the governor's chair.

Bill Creates Post

His position was created under a bill, signed last April 22 by Milliken, to fill a void created by the resignation in January, 1969 of former Gov. George Romney to join the Nixon Administration as secretary of housing and urban development. Milliken had been lieutenant governor.

The year-long delay in Schweigert's official assumption of the new post came through the refusal of House Republicans to vote an immediate effective date onto the bill.

Rep. William Hampton, R-Bloomfield Hills, House minority floor leader, seeks the GOP nomination for lieutenant governor in this year's election.

Eyes Election Win

Schweigert also has expressed interest in winning election to the office. But House Republicans sought to reduce the political edge he might derive from the acting lieutenantancy by substantially reducing the length of time he can claim to have held it.

Scores more of the 346 bills that Milliken signed last year also became law today. A total of 337 were passed by both Houses of the Legislature but Milliken vetoed 11 of them.

Unless earlier dates are specified, bills signed by the governor take effect 90 days after the Legislature adjourns for the year; the 1969 session ended on Dec. 19.

Name Change Noted

Thus, county boards of supervisors as of today are to be known as county boards of commissioners. The legislative reasoning advanced for the name change when the bill, introduced by Sen. James D. Gray, D-Warren, was passed last summer was that it would clear up

Abortion Reform Bill Introduced

LANSING (AP)—As abortion reform battle lines form in the Michigan Senate, a state representative has thrown the controversial question into yet another arena.

Rep. Richard Allen, R-Ithaca, Thursday introduced in the House a bill that would allow a woman to obtain a legal abortion in a state-approved medical facility, performed by a licensed doctor, anytime within the first three months of pregnancy.

The decision on whether or not to have the operation would be left solely to the woman and her doctor.

Identical Measure

The measure is identical to one sponsored by Sen. Gilbert Bursley, R-Ann Arbor, pending in the Senate Committee on Health, social services and retirement.

It also closely parallels requirements outlined earlier this week by Gov. William Milliken, who said he would support a "carefully and properly drawn" abortion reform measure.

Provisions Set

Milliken called, however, for a three-month residency requirement, parental or guardian consent for unwed mothers under 18 to obtain the abortion and a specific ban on pressure to have an abortion. Those provisions are not contained in the pending legislation, but could be easily incorporated through amendments.

Senate Health Committee Chairman N. Lorraine Beebe, R-Dearborn, has said she expects some form of abortion reform measure to be reported for Senate consideration by the end of April.

Would Drop Bill

Allen noted that possibility and said:

"If the Senate bill is passed and sent to the House, I'll drop my proposal and work for passage of the Senate bill. But, in case the Senate version runs into a snag, I think the House should work on its own bill."

Harnischfeger Honors Chigi

Mario Chigi of Escanaba, salvage supervisor of Harnischfeger's quality control department, was honored by the company Thursday at a noon luncheon at the House of Ludington for 35 years of service.

He received a 35-year award from Henry Auge, manager-quality control. Henry Vietzke, quality control specialist, and Howard Fontaine, manager-personnel and industrial relations, also joined the presentation.

Chigi was hired as a welding foreman at Harnischfeger's Hoboken, N. J., carrier manufacturing plant in 1935. The plant was later moved to Newark, N. J., and in 1948 to Escanaba. Chigi served as a welding foreman until 1950, when he was assigned to form the truck crane plant's first industrial engineering department. In 1953, he became foreman of the structural welding area and in 1958 was named general foreman over the structural processing and general welding areas. He was promoted to his present position in 1966.

Harnischfeger announced that 44 employees will observe service anniversaries in March, including 18 at five years, 13 at 10 years, six at 15 years and seven at 20 years.

To receive 20-year awards this month are Jack P. Williams, Clifford J. Dubord, Norah E. Marcoe Jr., James C. Peltier, Wallace J. Dahl, James P. Cashin and Kermit C. Prey, all of Escanaba.

A total of 102 active employees now have 20 or more years of service with the corporation in Escanaba.

College Alumni Incorporates To Assist Students

The incorporation of the Bay de Noc Community College Alumni Association has been completed with an office in the Escanaba Civic Center, Room 105, it is announced by the five-member Board of Trustees.

The trustees are: Joseph E. Viau, Gladstone; Eugene Slagstad Sr., Betty I. Nelson and Gene A. Hebert Jr., Escanaba; and Oliver J. Turan, Rapid River. Rte. 1. Nicholas P. Chapekis is the corporation attorney.

Of its objectives the Board of the Bay de Noc Community College Alumni Association reported:

"Our future purpose is to encourage and help anyone who is interested in furthering their education by means of scholarships, and student loans, also, to give to those who have attended the college a means of identifying themselves with it and may in return of gratitude for their education, give of their time, talent and money, by means of the alumni, to help others obtain the same goal."

Supervisors Now Commissioners In All Counties

Effective today the name of county boards of supervisors in Michigan becomes the county commission. The change is dictated in a statute adopted by the state legislature last year.

The Delta County Board of Supervisors, as of today, becomes the Delta County Board of Commissioners.

The change was made to distinguish between members of county legislative bodies and elected township executives who are also called supervisors.

Only the titles are changing, however. The powers, duties and structure of county boards of commissioners will remain the same.

Icebreaking To Start March 25

The U.S. Coast Guard plans to begin ice-breaking in Green Bay on or about March 25, it was reported today.

The Michigan and Wisconsin Departments of Natural Resources advise all fishermen that fishing through the ice will be terminated at that time.

As in the past, all fish shanties must be removed from the lakes.

There is no definite information as yet on when the first ore carrier is scheduled to come to Escanaba for ore — but it will probably be around April 1, reports the Chicago & North Western Railway.

Ice in Little Bay de Noc measures up to about 20 inches with many areas weakened and much less than that. Some fishermen are removing their shanties from the ice ahead of the expected breakup.

The ore fleet of U.S. Steel is calling its crews back to vessels to start preparing for the 1970 season. First movement of cargoes will be between lower lake ports.

The North Western last year moved nearly 7 million tons of iron ore through Escanaba and last fall it was anticipated that the 1970 season might push this total to 10 million.

Col. Hinton Of Sawyer AFB Is Going To Thailand

Colonel John R. Hinton Jr., commander of the 410th Bomb Wing at K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base, has received an assignment to Southeast Asia.

The 50-year-old colonel, a recent brigadier general selectee, is to become commander of the 307th Strategic Wing, U Tapao Air Field, Thailand, in July.

Return Of Prince Could Bring On Certain Trouble

"If Sihanouk 'attempts to use the legal authority which he no longer has.' The communique was broadcast by Radio Phnom Penh.

Dangerous times were seen ahead as the Cambodians waited nervously for their former ruler's next move. Two possible courses of action were foreseen: —He can accede gracefully and return to France with his wife, Princess Monique. —He can return to Cambodia and try to rally support for his cause.

Red Plans Feared

It was considered doubtful that Hanoi and Peking would do nothing while the men who ousted Sihanouk—Gen. Lon Nol, the premier, and Deputy Premier Sirik Matak—moved Cambodia to the right.

Sihanouk's overthrow was carried out so swiftly and smoothly that it took both Western and Communist diplomats by surprise.

First the government removed two men close to the 47-year-old prince, the chief of the Phnom Penh police and the minister for ground defense, who is Sihanouk's brother-in-law. Then upwards of 300 troops were concentrated around the National Assembly, backed by five tanks. More troops took position near the telephone and telegraph office and around the office of Radio Phnom Penh.

Confidence Withdrawn Then came the announcement that the National Assembly had unanimously withdrawn its confidence from Sihanouk and named the assembly president, Cheng Heng, acting chief of state.

Deputy Premier Matak is considered the strong man now. He also is a brother-in-law of Sihanouk, the half-brother of his wife, but is considered far to the right of the prince.

Agree With Prince

The Yugoslav news agency Tanjug reported from Peking that Sihanouk spent his second day in the Chinese capital conferring with members of the Cambodian embassy. It said nothing was known about his plans but there were indications from the embassy that all members of its staff "agree with the prince."

The report said Peking papers front-paged reports of Sihanouk's talks with Premier Chou En-lai and continued to refer to him as the Cambodian chief of state. They made no mention of his ouster.

Certified Auto Mechanics In Future Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The auto repair industry, under congressional ultimatum to improve the quality of repairs, told a Senate subcommittee Thursday day of new programs to test and certify auto mechanics.

The Independent Garage Owners of America, whose members account for an estimated 70 per cent of all repair work, said three-fourths of its mechanics will be certified competent by December.

The National Auto Dealers Association, representing 21,000 dealers who do much of the warranty repair and work on many newer cars, said its certification and testing program would be field tested in six months and installed nationwide shortly thereafter.

The associations delivered the assurances on the final day of hearings into auto warranty and repair by the antitrust and monopoly subcommittee.

The chairman of the subcommittee, Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., has proposed licensing repair shops and requiring each to hire at least one licensed master mechanic. Other mechanics would be certified competent under Hart's plan.

Similar licensing provisions are before the House in a bill by Rep. Seymour Halpern, R-N.Y., who put his testimony into the Senate record Thursday in a statement calling for nationwide voluntary certification for mechanics.

"If the trade cannot do the job or is unwilling to undertake it or cannot agree on how it could be done, then the ball must of necessity be passed on to the government," Halpern said.

"Nobody wants to see the government overseeing the repair trade," Halpern continued, "but neither does anyone want to see the highways strewn with the dead and maimed."

Robert Straub, past president of the Independent Garage Owners, said all mechanics must pass the examination to be certified. Long experience would not exempt a man, he said.

Note Deadline For Medicare Insurance Plan

Four out of every five persons enrolled in the Medicare doctor-bill insurance plan use services covered by the plan in the course of a year, according to Arnold T. Williams, social security district manager in Escanaba, who disclosed the figures today in reminding non-participants who are still eligible that the deadline for enrollment this year is March 31.

Those who will be age 65 in the future will have a chance to enroll then, so do not have to meet this deadline.

The doctor bill insurance part of Medicare is still open to persons who are age 65 or older and who were born after Oct. 1, 1901, but this will be the last chance for those born between that date and Oct. 1, 1902. More information is available through the Escanaba social security office.

ON THE HOUSE

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Lucky indeed is the house with sufficient storage space. No matter how much of it there is when a family moves in, accumulations of seemingly indispensable items soon shrink the available space to the point where more of it simply must be found.

A combination storage chest and bench is at least one answer to the need for more room. A typical chest-bench of this type would be 5' long, 2' deep and 1' 6" high. Some plywood, some 1 by 3 lumber and a small strip of wood to support a sliding divider tray on the inside are the ingredients needed. While individual cushions can be used on the top, these would have to be removed every time the chest is opened, so a more desirable arrangement would be a piece of foam rubber, covered with fabric and glued to the top.

Construction is simple, since you would be making nothing more than a rectangular box. The joints can be buttied by gluing or by nailing the plywood to a small piece of lumber on the inside of each corner. For economy, the plywood for the bottom of the chest and the top piece, under the cushion, can be C-D grade—unless the cost of buying two pieces of plywood of different grades might be more expensive than one large piece of a better grade. In either case, a thickness of three-quarters of an inch is recommended.

There are many ways in which the chest-bench can be finished, depending on where it is to be used. If it is to be kept in a conspicuous place and displayed as furniture, such as a living room, it should be given a clear finish, with a good grade of plywood used, possibly one with a hardwood facing.

For most purposes, paint is likely to be the best finish as well as the easiest to apply. If economical fir plywood is used, remember that its wild grain might later come through the paint unless a sealer is first applied. Your hardware store or lumber dealer carries a type of sealer especially suitable for use on fir plywood.

When the chest-bench is to be used in a child's room, it can be painted a gay color and then decorated with a few decals. Later, as the youngster grows up and his tastes and interests change, the decals can be removed and the item repainted to suit his preference.

Swiss Chalet Style Ranch

THE ATMOSPHERE of a chalet in the mountains of Switzerland is evident in this three-bedroom ranch, which combines both contemporary and traditional styling. Especially typical are the half timbers in slanting design on the white stucco.

By ANDY LANG

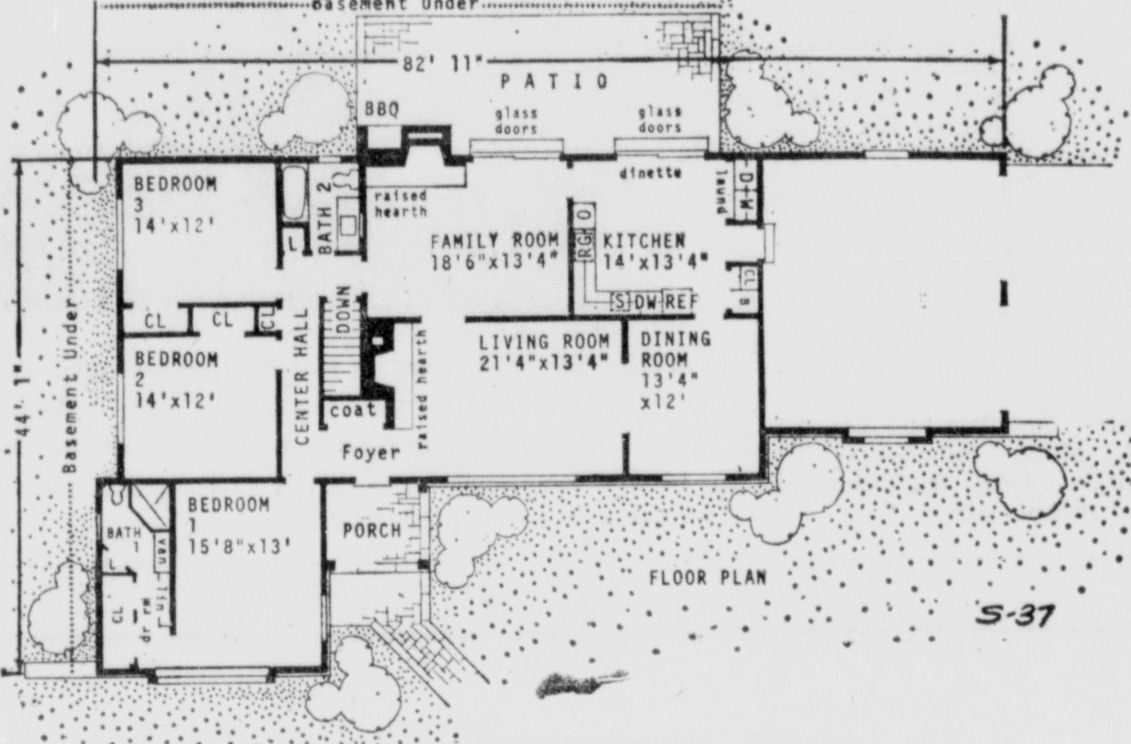

The traditional Swiss Chalet has a strong appeal for modern families. This popularity is due in large measure to the desire for a substantial, comfortable dwelling with a relaxed, informal air.

While the latest House of the Week is not a true Swiss Chalet, it has enough of its styling features to place it in that category. Actually, it combines traditional and contemporary lines, giving it a measure of individuality without interfering with its resale potentiality.

Architect Derick B. Kipp has given Design S-37 good lines and charming details, enhanced by the use of stucco, half-timber and brick on the front. The diamond-type windows offer privacy as well as decorative features.

The foyer gives an immediate view of an attractive living room, with the dining room visible through an open arch. A wide picture window is at the front. Family dining privacy is assured by the diamond-paned dining room window. The entire area is made to seem larger by the location of a raised-hearth fireplace on an inner wall. Together, the living room and the dining room create an excellent first impression for those who haven't previously been in the house.

At the rear of the living room-dining room combination are the family room and the kitchen. The family room is especially handsome, with its fireplace and sliding glass doors leading to a patio, with a built-in barbecue. The patio in this particular case is certain to get plenty of use, since it also can Design S-37 has a living room, dining room, family room, kitchen with dinette, three bedrooms, two bathrooms a foyer and a laundry alcove, totaling 1947 square feet. There is a two-car garage at the side and a patio at the rear. Overall dimensions, including the garage, are 82' 11" by 44' 1". Plans call for a full basement.

Retiree Still Likes Famous 'Iron Horse'

DETROIT (AP) — "The romance in railroading went out when they came in," said Ivan Dale Meade, pointing to the diesel locomotives which replaced the old steam engines of his youth.

Meade retires Friday from the Grand Trunk Western Railroad after 44 years of "caring for and feeding" both steam and diesel engines.

Meade, who'll be 65 next month, had his picture taken this week with old 5629, a former beauty of the railroad industry whose 250,000 pounds now stand motionless in a railway cemetery.

After the picture was taken, he climbed down carefully from the old steam engine, giving her one last pat.

"I won't kiss her," he said. "I never did that, but I used to pet and pamper her as if she were alive."

"That's the way I always thought of her and the other steam locomotives. Each had a feeling — a personality — that required a certain attention and handling."

Meade said he first met 5629 — engines never have nicknames — about 25 years ago. "Since then, we made a lot of runs and whistle stops together throughout the Midwest."

Meade joined the Grand Trunk as a fireman for steam locomotives Aug. 14, 1925, after leaving the family farm in Augusta, Mich.

He moved up through several different jobs and when the diesel engines took over from the steam engines during the 1950s, he was a master mechanic in charge of all locomotives in Grand Trunk's Detroit Division.

He spent his last years with the company training engine men.

But he's convinced that steam engines like old 5629 — doomed to be scrapped — can never be replaced in the hearts of railroad men by the streamlined diesels. "They're just machines — no personality, you know."

IVAN DALE MEAD, 64, of Royal Oak, Mich., gazes past Grand Trunk steam locomotive 5629, which he refers to as the "woman" in his life. Mead, who retired recently, was fireman aboard the 260,000 pound engine 25 years ago. (AP Wirephoto)

School Consolidation Measure Passes, 56-38

LANSING (AP) — Gov. William Milliken's bulging $1.74-billion budget for the new fiscal year stands to gain a $30-million underpinning as soon as the three-bill tax package clears the Michigan House.

The bills, chocking off various exemptions from the state sales, use and diesel fuel taxes, cleared the Senate in revised form Thursday after lengthy compromise deliberations for bus lines, faced further wrangling in the House.

School Bill Passes

The lower chamber, meanwhile gave a narrow, 56-38 passage Thursday for a bill to consolidate Michigan's 60 intermediate school districts into 20-30 larger units by July 1, 1971.

Outstate opponents of the measure, a variation of one of Milliken's original education reform proposals, called for a reconsideration vote today but were not expected to be able to stop the bill.

The Senate Thursday approved conference compromises that take effect May 1. Church-governmental agencies would lose exemptions on construction materials that are estimated at $8.1 million.

Firms Would Pay More

Manufacturers would pay an estimated $5 million more in taxes on equipment and certain operations; and a similar amount is expected to be raised from elimination of sales tax exemption on printing of handbills, catalogues and pamphlets.

All three bills passed the House last year shortly before Christmas, but a bone of contention has continued to delay final agreement on the diesel fuel bill. Senate versions consistently have continued an exemption for bus lines ranging from the big interstate carriers such as Greyhound to smaller, city transit lines. House legislators have argued that exemption should be closed.

Cookies Taxed

"The girl scouts pay $76,000 a year in taxes on their cookie sales," said Rep. Joseph Snyder, D-St. Clair Shores, citing statistics supplied him by the Treasury Department. "Greyhound can pay, too."

Exemptions under the $26.9 million sales tax measure would be lost by a wide variety of persons and organizations:

Ministers would lose writeoffs estimated at $1 million a year on new car sales; yacht clubs, skiing clubs, rabbit breeders and other nonprofit organizations would contribute another $2.3 million.

Equipment Taxable

Manufacturers no longer would be allowed to avoid taxes on such items of equipment as fork lift trucks, bulldozers and office equipment. Groceries would pay tax on purchase of butcher's equipment, and industrial boiler cleaners would be charged tax for their equipment and supplies.

The school district reorganization bill that now goes to the Senate makes a number of changes in Milliken's original proposal for a statewide system of 10-15 "regional districts."

Under the House version, a special seven-member committee, appointed by Milliken, would be ordered to remap the state's intermediate districts and submit the plan to the Legislature by next Jan. 16. The newly elected Legislature would have until the following July 1 to review it.

U. P. Schools Involved

A last-minute House amendment specifies that six Upper Peninsula Intermediate Districts (which handle administrative matters and coordinate special education programs) could not be reduced to fewer than four.

The committee would be required to hold public hearings on its proposals and a number of revision periods are provided for in the event the legislature or district school boards object to the plans.

State Accident Claims Coffers Bulging Over

LANSING (AP) — Uninsured drivers now have paid a total of $1.1 million into the State's Motor Vehicle Accident claims fund, as a result of accidents caused by their negligence.

Secretary of State James Hare said this week the fund, which became operational in 1966, has a reserve of more than $34 million. He said a total of $11 million has been paid out of the fund "to deserving victims of uninsured drivers."

Hare said the average claim now is "about $1,400."

Hare said he still favors removal of the $1 fee paid by insured drivers, but would support a provision for removal of the fee after two years if the fund was in "economic distress."

Hare also issued a reminder that the $35 paid into the fund by uninsured drivers is "not state insurance."

"Many motorists," he said, "are still under the mistaken impression that the $35 fee they pay when not carrying public liability and property damage insurance with a private insurance company is actually state insurance. Nothing can be further from the truth. This is a fee they must pay to drive in Michigan as uninsured drivers."

"If a claim is paid out because of their negligence, the total amount of the claim will be collected by the state."

The virtually impenetrable Amazon Basin holds enough timber to construct a three-room house for every family in the world, says the new book, "Exploring the Amazon."

Ranking education experts in both parties charged that amendment in effect would propose abandonment of education reform. The amendment, offered by Rep. Dale Warner, R-Eaton Rapids, and supported mostly by Republicans, failed by a 33-37 vote.

This ad might save you about 500 bucks.

It's simply a matter of arithmetic. Say you're about to buy a new water heater. You have two choices, Gas or electric, right? Wrong. Once you read the facts you'll find that Gas is the only choice. And here's why: Gas heats water faster for about 1/2 the cost of electricity. For the sake of argument, say you have two hot water heaters. A 40-gallon Gas heater. And an 80-gallon electric. Well, the truth is, that the 40-gallon Gas heater will produce more hot water than the 80-gallon electric for 1/2 the cost. That alone could save you as much as 50 dollars a year. And in ten years, that's roughly 500 dollars. Like we said: do you really have two choices? Bet you 500 bucks you don't.

'Peachy' Pork Chops Are Family Pleasers

If it's a challenge to entice the children to eat foods supplying essential protein and vitamins, you need a recipe they won't be able to resist. Succulent pork chops topped with sweet peaches meet this challenge in a delicious manner.

The chops braise slowly with peach juice, honey and spices to develop lively flavor, according to Reba Staggs, home economist for the National Live Stock and Meat Board. The pork and peach combo is so attractive and tasty, the children won't skip this nutritious main dish.

Peachy Pork Chops
6 pork rib or loin chops, cut 1/2 to 3/4 inch thick
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 can (16 ounces) sliced cling peaches
2 tablespoons honey
1 teaspoon lemon juice
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon ginger
Flour for gravy

Brown chops in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Season chops with salt and pepper. Drain peaches, reserving 1/2 cup liquid. Combine peach liquid, honey, lemon juice, cinnamon and ginger. Pour over chops. Cover tightly and cook slowly 45 minutes or until done. Add peach slices and cook just until heated through. Remove chops. Thicken liquid with flour for gravy and spoon over chops. 6 servings.

Orange Cake Brightens Menu

To keep in step with spring, let the table bloom with a fragrant orange dessert cake. Create a festive air with this cake containing dates and nuts and glazed with orange syrup. Serve warm and bask in the praise that follows.

For tender crumbs and unexcelled texture every time, home economist Reba Staggs of the National Live Stock and Meat Board recommends using lard for the shortening.

Orange Blossom Date Cake
2 cups sifted flour
3/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 cup lard
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
3/4 cup sour milk
1/2 cup chopped dates
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1/2 cup orange juice
2/3 cup sugar
1 teaspoon grated orange rind

Sift together flour, salt, soda and baking powder. Cream lard and 1 cup sugar together until light and fluffy. Add eggs and beat well. Add sifted ingredients alternately with sour milk, mixing well after each addition. Stir in dates and nuts. Pour batter into greased 9-inch square cake pan. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for 25 to 30 minutes, until inserted cake tester comes out clean. Cool about 5 minutes. Loosen edges, invert cake on rack, remove from pan and turn cake onto plate so it is top side up. Combine orange juice, 3/4 cup sugar and rind and heat to boiling. Pour over warm cake. Serve warm with whipped cream or dairy sour cream, if desired.

Teenager Is 'Bad News' To Drug Pushers

NEWARK, Calif. (AP) — Susan Dusio, 13, is bad news to local drug pushers.

The 4-foot-7, 70-pound eighth grader at MacGregor Junior High School is almost entirely responsible for arranging a week of drug-abuse education that taught 640 teen-agers what the drug scene is all about.

"The response was indescribable," says Vice Principal Kenneth Strange. "She had help, of course, but Susan carried the ball from the very beginning and virtually handled the thing by herself. It wouldn't have happened without her."

The fact that Susan knew some teen-agers on drugs led her to choose that topic for a special report in history class.

"A lot of kids smoke, but cigarettes are not as bad as drugs. A lot of kids picked air pollution, but that's not as bad as drugs, so I picked drugs because it's the worst problem."

She sent for some literature and learned that speakers, exhibits and movies were available. Her teachers responded enthusiastically to her suggestion for a week of programs.

"It's important that kids get the right information on drugs, not lies and exaggerations," says Susan, who politely refuses whenever she is offered drugs, usually out of school.

She got on the telephone—to the state Narcotics Bureau in San Francisco, Alameda County authorities, the private Synanon House in Oakland, and to Headway, another volunteer group in Oakland working to stop the spread of drug abuse.

Susan lined up a list of speakers, exhibits, and movies, and a week in March was set aside by the school for the show. Local service clubs and banks chipped in $150 to help with expenses.

At the conclusion of the week of discussions, she was pleased with the results.

"A lot of kids seem to know more now about what it means to take drugs," Susan says. "I think some of them have a different point of view about it now. I hope so."

Variety Of Churches Needed, Writer Says

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
NEW YORK (AP) — "Now that different churches are friendly to each other, there's no reason for them to unite organizationally," a Presbyterian layman remarked. "It would just mean more bigness and uniformity. We need the different kinds of churches to suit different kinds of people."

That's a common reaction to the developing plans to unite a broad swath of American Protestantism.

Controls Feared

Many people see it simply as a drive for an institutional colossus that would produce bureaucratic controls, homogenize everybody into one mold, and snuff out the spark of variety.

But planners of the unified church see precisely the opposite effects, and cite different motivations for the endeavor.

They say one of the main things wrong with the present divided, compartmentalized church life is that it segregates believers into homogenized, uniform blocs, racially, economically and socially.

Functions Differ

The system, they say, tends to wall people off into think-alike, worship-alike, act-alike cubicles, insulated against mutual stimulation, challenges and the cross-flow of differing ideas and ways.

FOR THE SENEY National Wildlife Refuge spring arrives when the geese return and return they did, about 6 p.m. Wednesday when a flight of five landed near headquarters. These birds quickly joined the three geese which had stayed at the refuge all winter. March 18 is a normal spring arrival date. Last year the geese arrived on March 17. Within two weeks there should be 500 to 600 birds at the refuge and they will continue to trickle in until mid-April. There should be over 1,000 birds returning from the 1,400 that left last fall. The hardy members of the flock that return early find the refuge still snow-covered and wintry. The only open water is below the spillways and there is still two feet of snow on the ground.

B&E, Larceny Are Reported

Larceny of money from the cash register of a Rapid River tavern and a breaking and entering in Wells Township are under investigation by State Police today.

Woodrow Johnson of Woody's bar, Rapid River, told troopers that more than $60 was removed from the cash register of his bar between noon and 12:30 p.m. Thursday by a person who apparently decided to draw a glass of beer at the same time.

He told police there were no customers in the bar when he left the bar area to repair a sink in the kitchen. When he returned, someone had drawn beer from a tap and tapped the cash register.

State Police also said someone entered the U.P. Concrete Pipe Co., Wells, by prying open a door on the south end of the building. Clarence Curran told officers that the office had been gone over, but nothing apparently was taken.

Seattle Hotel Fire Kills 18

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Fire officials said at least 18 persons died and an undetermined number were injured early today when fire swept the five-story Ozark Hotel near the downtown business district.

The King County medical examiner's office said the toll might go higher. An estimated 35 to 40 persons were in the hotel, one guest said.

Seattle Police Sgt. Jack Lawson, who witnessed the blaze, said some hotel residents leaped from windows to escape flames.

Eugene Fingarson, 42, a hotel guest said he sat on a fourth-floor window ledge for about 15 minutes until firemen put a ladder up to him.

"I heard a siren," said Fingarson, "and then I smelled smoke. I opened the door, but the fire came into the room, and I had to close it again."

"The hall was full of fire and smoke, I couldn't get out that way."

He said many of the residents were elderly persons.

"I know one man jumped from the second floor. He was pretty banged up, but he was OK." He estimated the hotel housed 35-40 persons.

Fingarson said he was awakened about 2:30 a.m. Firemen reported the fire under control 3:24 a.m.

Pilots' Future Continues To Bounce Around Courts

SEATTLE (AP)—The money-plagued plight of the Seattle Pilots continues to bounce from court to court, with a hearing due in King County Superior Court today on moves to switch the American League team.

The action came less than 24 hours after a petition was filed in U.S. District Court asking that the franchise be sold to Milwaukee for $108 million under the Bankruptcy Act.

Today's hearing at 9:30 a.m.

was held so the league and team owners could give reasons why temporary injunctions shouldn't be issued in two suits filed to prevent a franchise switch.

Washington State and Seattle joined in an $82 million suit, and Alfred J. Schweppe, Seattle lawyer, filed another. In both, temporary restraining orders were obtained barring the league and its 12 owners from moving the team.

Expectations today were that Superior Court would be asked by the league and the Bank of California, which is an intervenor in the case, to delay action until after a March 24 hearing before Sidney Volinn, federal referee in bankruptcy.

When the petition was filed Thursday asking that the Pilot be sold to Milwaukee, Volinn set that date for the state, the city and Schweppe to give their reasons why a court injunction barring them from interfering with the sale of the franchise shouldn't be issued.

Volinn set March 30 for considering the petition, in which the owners of the Pilots, Pacific Northwest Sports Inc., said it "is unable to meet its debts" and "is without funds to finance the operations of the baseball club in Seattle in 1970."

Debts totaling $7.4 million were listed, including $3.5 million to the Bank of California, $2 million to Sportservice, Inc., the concessionaire, and $1 million in notes payable to stockholders.

Regardless of the bankruptcy court action, William Dwyer, special assistant state attorney general in charge of the $82 million state-city suit, said his efforts to obtain an injunction would continue.

The petition said that after a contract to sell the franchise to Fred Danz, Seattle theater owner, fell through "your petitioner subsequently entered into an agreement for the sale of its assets to the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club, Inc., subject solely to approval of said league."

Danz, one of the surprises in the list of creditors, headed a group of businessmen that tried to buy the franchise and keep it in Seattle.

The petition listed the Pilots as owing Danz and his group $261,875, due this coming May 1.

Bruins, Dolphins In NCAA Finals

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—Defending champion UCLA, seeking an unprecedented fourth consecutive title and sixth in seven years, will match its speed and balance Saturday against the height of tourney newcomer Jacksonville University in the finals of the NCAA basketball championship.

"They have such great balance," said Jacksonville Coach Joe Williams after UCLA demolished New Mexico State 93-77 in the semifinals Thursday night. "There isn't anyone on their ball club that is weak, no one you can really play off of."

"We're going to try to make some kind of effort to get them out of their pattern," he said. "We can't make them play their game."

UCLA Coach John Wooden, not over-enthusiased with his club's offensive game against the amazin' Aggies, also had lots of praise for Jacksonville which squeezed past outmanned and foul-plagued St. Bonaventure 101-83 in the other semifinal. "I would think it would be our speed against their height," Wooden said. "I think we're much quicker but they have those big boys."

One of those boys he was talking about is 7-foot-2 Artis Gilmore, who scored 29 points and grabbed 21 rebounds to lead the Dolphins over a charged-up St. Bonaventure club that played without injured All-American Bob Lanier.

Tough Warrior Defense Shoots Down Maravich

NEW YORK (AP)—"We come out smoking," said Coach Al McGuire of Marquette ... and that's how his Warriors kept the heat on Pistol Pete Maravich.

Marquette's fiery defense shot down Louisiana State's one-man basketball show and took a runaway 101-79 victory Thursday night to advance to the finals of the 33rd National Invitation Tournament.

St. John's of New York earlier advanced to the finals with a heart-thumping 60-59 victory over Army before 19,500 hysterical fans at Madison Square Garden.

"Any man can be stopped," said McGuire after Marquette used a variety of defenses to hold Maravich to only 20 points, almost 27 below his game average. "Where is he gonna go with men in front of him and behind him?"

"Teams know we're going to come out smoking," said McGuire. "They know we're going to be on their chest and belly to belly from the start."

There were times Marquette had three men draped over the Pistol ... and sometimes zone combinations ate him up. Maravich also admitted that a sore left ankle hindered his lateral movement and negated his feared outside jump shot.

Dean Meminger, Marquette's fleet guard, scored a sub-par 16 points, but helped guard Maravich and kept the offense in high gear most of the night with his bullet passes.

Marquette held only a 49-43 halftime lead, but opened the throttle in the second half with seven straight points that actually put it away.

Sophomore Rich Lyons dropped in two foul shots with one second left in the opener as St. John's stole the game from Army's game Cadets.

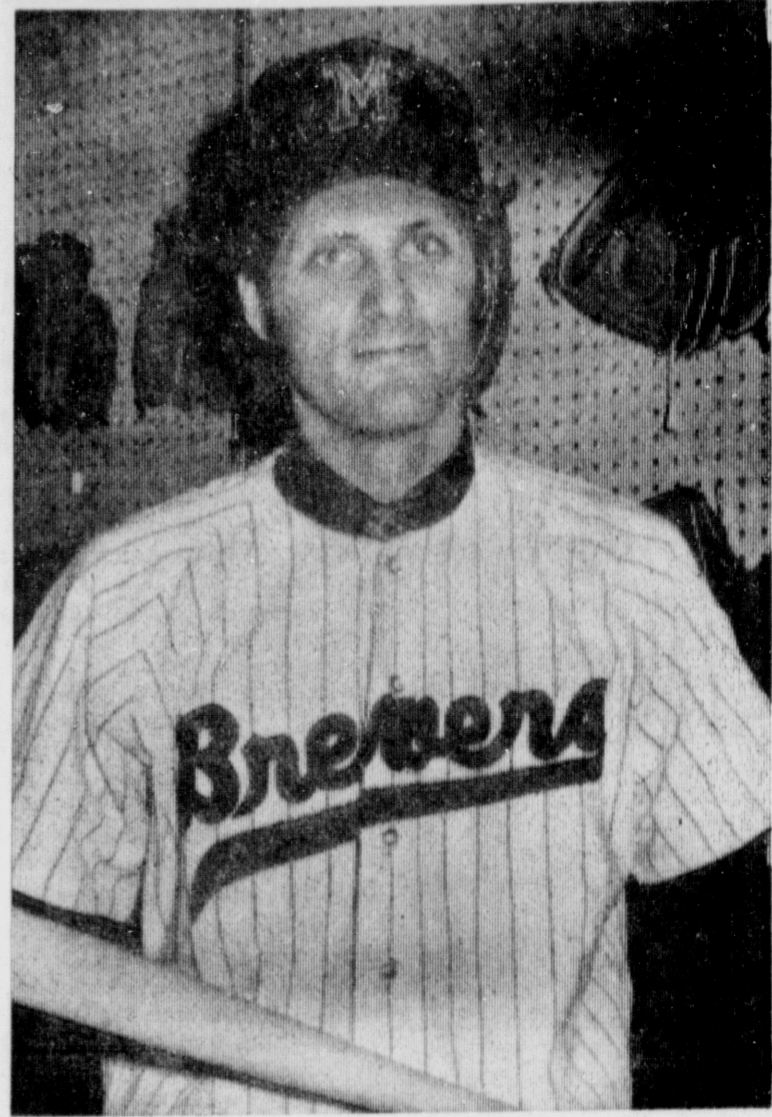

"What can you say about Lyons?" exulted St. John's Coach Lou Carnesecca. "Talk about pressure! It was all there. A sophomore with all the pressure in the world ... and he makes the big shots."

"He's been in situations like that before, blew them and went home and cried. But ... tonight he's a pretty happy kid."

Army had a 59-58 lead with 21 seconds left. St. John's ate up most of the clock while trying to work the ball inside, and Lyons finally took a desperation shot and was fouled by Jim Oxley with just a second remaining.

He calmly made the deciding shots whils St. John's cheers rang through the Garden.

Bengals Defeated In Exhibition Tilt

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Detroit Tigers Willie Horton, Ken Szotkiewicz and Elliott Maddox slammed home runs Thursday against the Los Angeles Dodgers in exhibition baseball but all soloed, leaving the Bengals, with a 5-3 deficit in overtime.

Dodger Willie Crawford's two-run homer off of rookie pitcher Gary Taylor in the 10th inning gave Los Angeles the victory.

The Tigers made three errors in Thursday's game, but manager Mayo Smith insisted the errors didn't worry him. "You're going to make errors in major league baseball just like you do in Little League baseball," Smith said.

The errors came from veterans Dick McAuliffe, Norm Cesh, and Horton. "People sit in the stands and say, 'Oh, that's awful.' But they might as well get used to the idea that there are going to be errors," said Smith resignedly.

Tiger relief pitchers—Taylor, Bob Reed, Fred Lasher, Tom Timmerman, Fred Scherman, John Hiller, Jerry Robertson and Daryl Patterson — have now allowed an embarrassing 8.06 earned run average.

Soaring Rockets Clobber Pistons

By The Associated Press

The San Diego Rockets zoomed off to an early lead against the Detroit Pistons Thursday night, soaring out of reach for their 132-118 National Basketball Association victory.

The Pistons staged a final period rally which brought them to within five points of San Diego, but Detroit still wound up odds-on favorites for a first-round draft choice at season's end.

In the only other NBA game Thursday, the Phoenix Suns beat the Boston Celtics 127-123.

The Pistons helped San Diego temporarily avert a last-place finish in the Western Division. But a win by sixth-place San Francisco, or a loss by San Diego in one of its two remaining games, will put the Rockets in the division cellar.

At halftime, the Pistons were trailing 58-51, hit hardest by the shooting of rookie Rocket Bob Smith, who scored 12 of his 22 game points in the second quarter.

By the end of the third period the Rockets had widened their lead to 13 points.

Billy Lothridge of Atlanta, individual leader in 1967 and 1968, dropped to No. 5 last year. Ron Wibly of Dallas was the 1969 runnerup, averaging 43.3 yards.

Baltimore also was the team later.

Bruins Top Black Hawks; Wings Closer To Second

By The Associated Press

The hustling Detroit Red Wings could snare second place in the tight National Hockey League East Division by whipping Oakland tonight.

With only six points separating first place Boston and fifth place Montreal, a win for Detroit would slip them one point ahead of Chicago and only two points behind Boston.

A tie with Oakland in tonight's game, would give the Wings a season total of 86 points to tie Chicago for the division's second place spot. Detroit is now tied with New York for third place with 85 points.

Only nine games remain in the closest race in memory.

The Wings extended their unbeaten streak to 10 games, their best since 1962-63, by beating the Minnesota North Stars 6-2 Wednesday.

Thursday, Boston whipped Chicago 3-1 on a short-handed goal by Derek Sanderson in the opening minutes of play.

Elsewhere, Philadelphia set an NHL record with its 24th tie of the season, a 2-2 deadlock against New York. It was the sixth straight time this season that the two teams had played to a standoff—the first time in NHL history that two teams had completed a seasons work against each other without a single game ending in a decision.

St. Louis tripped Pittsburgh 3-1 and Montreal whipped Los Angeles 6-1 in other action.

A pair of early penalties put Boston in a manpower hole quickly against the Hawks but Sanderson, one of the NHL's premier penalty killers, scored a short-handed goal to get the Bruins off winging.

It was the 11th short-handed goal scored by the Bruins this season and third for Sanderson.

Later, Johnny Bucyk scored his 28th and 29th goals of the year to give the Bruins some insurance. Goalie Ed Johnston was brilliant, kicking out 36 shots as the Bruins extended their lead over Chicago to three points. Both teams have eight games to play.

Orlando Kurtenbach's third period goal earned the deadlock for New York, ninth tie in the last 10 meetings between the Rangers and Flyers over the past two seasons.

Dave Valon scored New York's other goal while Reg Fleming and Simon Nelat counted for the Flyers.

Fifth place Montreal climbed back within two points of the Rangers and Wings by beating Los Angeles.

Pete Mahovich scored one goal and collected three assists to power the Canadiens. Jean Beliveau, Larry Mickey, Henri Richard, Yvan Cournoyer and Mickey Redmond produced the other goals. Ross Lonsberry averted a shutout for the Kings.

The Blues, champs of the West Division for the second straight season, used goals by Tim Ecclestone, Terry Crisp and Gary Sabourin to beat Pittsburgh.

The loss, combined with Philadelphia's tie against New York, left the Penguins a single point ahead of the Flyers in the battle for second place in the West.

BILL FITCH, basketball coach at the University of Minnesota for the past two years, resigned Wednesday to become head coach of the new Cleveland entry in the National Basketball Association. Fitch has a 187-111 lifetime coaching record. (AP Wirephoto)

Chisox Upend Reds; May Brothers Shine

By The Associated Press

Lee May won the battle of the brothers but Carlos didn't do too bad. His Chicago White Sox won the war.

Older brother Lee, who has slammed White Sox pitching for eight hits in nine trips this spring, lashed three hits, including two doubles and three runs batted in Thursday but his Cincinnati Reds lost to the White Sox 7-3 at Sarasota, Fla., in an exhibition contest.

However, Carlos, 21, who missed over sixty games last year when he lost part of his right thumb in a freak accident while serving a two-week military hitch last summer, belted a double and a single, driving in the first two Chicago runs.

Carlos, a left-handed hitter but righty thrower, is making a miraculous comeback after his career was believed ended. In 109 games last year he batted .281, crashing 18 homers and 62 RBI before the accident. Brother Lee, 27, had a .278 mark with 38 homers and 110 RBI last year.

At Mesa, Ariz., tragedy struck the Cleveland Indians when outfielder Ken Harrelson broke a bone in his lower right leg. An Indian spokesman said he would be out at least two months and possibly the entire season.

Harrelson's injury occurred while he was sliding into second base on a fourth inning force out against Oakland.

"I knew right away it was bad," said the 28-year-old Harrelson, who was obtained from Boston by Cleveland in April of last year. "I heard it snap and I saw my foot pointing in the opposite direction."

The A's won the game 9-0 behind the three-hit pitching of Juan Pizarro and Robert Rodriguez.

Ken McMullen cracked a three-run homer and started a triple play in Washington's 8-4 triumph over the New York Yankees, snapping the Yanks' six-game winning string. Frank Howard, the Senators' mammoth slugger, made his spring debut, slapping a single in three trips to the plate.

THE PIECE OF PAPER Robert Johnson, left, and Carl Van-Remortal are holding is a check for $1,208,630.74, the proceeds of the bond sale to finance construction of a new K-12 school in the Bay de Noc School District. The secretary and president of the school board were in Detroit Monday to sign the bonds and, within two hours after the picture was taken, the proceeds were invested. The interest earned will be added to the construction fund. Ground breaking ceremonies for the new school, to be located south of Garden Corners on the Garden Road, will be held soon.

GM Stockholders Able To Vote On Nader's Proposals

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors Corp. stockholders get to vote in May at their annual meeting on two proposals made by consumer advocate Ralph Nader.

The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) informed the giant automaker Thursday that two of nine proposals from Nader's project for Corporate Responsibility should be included.

GM said it would go along with the SEC request, although it added that GM attorneys disagreed with the SEC ruling. GM had originally rejected all nine proposals.

The two up for a vote concern whether to enlarge the board of directors by three members so that "representatives of the public" can sit on the board, and whether a "general Motors Shareholders Committee for Corporate Responsibility" should be established.

The SEC said that any funds given the committee should be reasonable and that any information given it should not concern any areas the board does not believe are privileged for business or competitive reasons.

Named To Board

DETROIT (AP)—Tom Turner, president of the Metropolitan AFL-CIO, was named to the board of Michigan Blue Shield Thursday. Turner is also president of the Detroit chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, a director of New Detroit, Inc., a trustee of Alma College and a board member of the Narcotics Rehabilitation Coordinating Organization.

LaVigne was ordered to pay $30 and $30 and sentenced to 10 days in jail. If the fine and costs are not paid within ten days, he must serve 30 days in jail.

Were Bombing Plots Initiated In Flint?

FLINT, Mich. (AP) — Flint's police chief has asked the Justice Department to assist his investigation of reports that a nationwide bombing plot by revolutionary terrorists was planned in Flint late last year.

The ultra-militant Weatherman faction of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) staged what they called a "National War Council" in the southeastern Michigan city last December 28-31.

James W. Rutherford, the police chief, said "while it cannot be verified, we are convinced that this is the meeting where plans were drawn to bomb various locations throughout the nation."

Rutherford appealed to Attorney General John N. Mitchell for help in tracking down the reported purchaser of some 200 sticks of dynamite that was bought in the Flint area during the time that the SDS meeting was going on.

An undisclosed informer, identified by Rutherford only as Eric, said the explosives were obtained by a man dressed as a priest. Police said the informer also reported that the dynamite was distributed to cars with licenses from New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Washington, D.C. and other states.

A girl that was reported to have attended the Weatherman convention, and who had been a resident of Flint, was identified this week as the second of three bodies recovered from a New York townhouse that exploded March 6. New York authorities say the explosion was caused by homemade bombs exploding in the basement.

The girl, Diana Oughton, 28, was a graduate of Bryn Mawr College and had attended graduate school at the University of Michigan in 1968 and 1969.

Rutherford said that his records showed another youth killed in the New York explosion was at the Flint conference. He was identified as Ted Gold, a former Columbia University student

Trio Completes Snowo Voyage From Alaska

SEATTLE (AP)—Three tired men arrived here on a snowmobile Wednesday, completing a 2,500-mile trip that started at Barrow, Alaska.
 No sooner had the trio arrived, than the leader of the expedition announced plans for two more endurance runs on an experimental snow machine—up Mount Fuji and to the South Pole.

Leader of the expedition was Tom Shiflet, 36, Moonachie, N.J., director of racing and testing for Alsort Inc. of Norwalk, Ohio, manufacturer of the snowmobile.

With Shiflet were Ronnie DeBush, 39, and Larry Jorgensen, 29, both of Green Bay, Wis.

The crew said they averaged 200 miles a day and 22 miles per hour in the trip that started 19 days ago. Original plans were to begin at Barrow, but poor weather and some mechanical problems forced them to move the starting point south to Fairbanks. Using a pickup truck to carry supplies, the trip followed the Alaska Highway to Dawson Creek, B.C., then south to Seattle via the Vancouver, B.C. area.

The tracked snowmobile can travel on both snow and solid ground, Shiflet said.

He said the Japanese government has invited him to drive the vehicle up the 12,389-foot Mt. Fuji. He will make the attempt in May.

Later, Shiflet said, he will challenge another snowmobile driver to race to the South Pole from Cape Hope, possibly early next year. He said the challenge will be to Ralph Plaisted, the first person to go to the North Pole by snowmobile.
 "Then I retire," Shiflet said.

Chrysler Corp. TV Ad Stirs Up More Lawmen

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Highway Patrol Supt. Robert J. Charamonte has complained that a Chrysler Corp., television commercial portrays police in "a most objectionable manner."

Charamonte wrote Chrysler that the commercial, offered last fall and showing a law officer examining and commenting on a new car, tends "to weaken the court processes of America."

M. G. Moggee, an advertising manager for the Dodge Division of Chrysler, said he had written Charamonte assurances the commercial will be changed.
 "We never intended to dilute the image of law enforcement," Moggee said. He said the role of the actor, Joe Higgins, will be made over "into a father image — participating in Little League."

Charamonte could not be reached for comment on his letter but a spokesman in his office denied the patrol chief threatened to stop using Chrysler built cars if the commercial were not changed.
 "After all," the spokesman said, "this (car purchasing) is out of our hands because the purchasing is done by the state purchasing office."

State Finance Director Howard Collier said state car purchases are handled on a bid basis.

"If you don't like a — and they're the lowest bidder, you better get used to driving a —," Collier said.

A Columbus Plymouth dealer won the latest contract to supply the highway patrol with about 700 Plymouths at $2,330 each.

GLADSTONE

Hansen Canning Plant May Close

Unless he can sell the Hansen Canning Co. intact, it will have to be closed after 15 years of operation, George Hansen, president of the company, has announced.

Adverse marketing conditions have seriously affected the company's operations, Hansen said.

"During the past two years our products have brought the lowest prices since we came to Gladstone," Hansen said. "This, coupled with constantly rising costs of operation, has made it impossible to operate at a profit. We have no alternative that we can see but to close our doors."

Hansen said he was negotiating to try to sell the plant to a larger organization which would have the capital and marketing resources necessary for a profitable operation.

"If we are unable to do this we will still hope to sell the buildings to some other industry that will provide employment for Gladstone people," he said.

Other sources have inferred that pressures to end smoke emissions from the plant have entered into Hansen's decision to cease operations here.

Control of the smoke problem would require installation of a new boiler at a cost of $50,000 and in the light of present conditions, this expenditure is regarded as unrealistic.

The management is afraid to begin the season with its present equipment in the light of present sentiment regarding air pollution, this source said.

Charge Driver Was Intoxicated

Gladstone city police arrested Harold E. Brazeau, 34, of 635 N. 9th, Thursday night and charged him with driving while under the influence of intoxicants.

He was not involved in a traffic accident. Officers lodged him in jail overnight for his appearance today in Delta District Court.

To Study Abroad

EAST LANSING (AP) — State Police report trooper Leonard Specklin of the East Lansing headquarters crime laboratory is leaving this week for Munich, Germany, to study techniques used there for the examination of questioned documents. Specklin, a native of Saginaw and a graduate of Central Michigan University, can read, speak and write German, police said.

If a man could stand on the surface of the sun, he would weigh about two tons.

Children's TV Show Colorful, Lacks Warmth

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. Seuss may be the author of books for children, but the television adaptation of his words and drawings, Thursday night's "Horton Hears a Who" on CBS, probably was most appreciated by the adult viewers.

The half-hour special was a colorful and faithful animation of the distinctive Seuss style but lacked some warmth. Horton was a conscientious little elephant who risked his life and reputation trying to save a speck of dust because he heard a voice from within it calling for help.

As it turned out, the speck of dust contained a whole village of tiny residents of Who-ville. They were tossed by wind, carried off by a bird and chased by some ape-like villains.

Horton's determination to save Who-ville led to all sorts of malicious stories being circulated through his jungle, including one rumor that, since he talked to a speck of dust, that he had flipped his lid.

This illustrated that "nobody believes anything exists outside of his own little world." Horton made his point. The accompanying songs had lilting albeit forgettable tunes and pretty sophisticated lyrics. And some of the creatures in Horton's world were pretty scary looking.

David Frost's syndicated 90-minute talk show on many channels Thursday night was a long, leisurely interview with Richard Burton and, more briefly, with his wife, Elizabeth Taylor. It will be broadcast within a few days on other channels which buy the Frost show.

The program revealed a lot about the two principals in one of the most widely publicized romances of our time. And it demonstrated Frost's abilities as an interviewer who had done his homework and was able to lead his subjects into some interesting areas.

Burton, when alone with Frost, reminisced about his early life as the son of a poor Welsh miner. He said the greatest influences on his acting style were his foster-father, Philip Burton, actor Emlyn Williams and, most of all, Sir John Gielgud.

When Miss Taylor appeared, they engaged in a bit of domestic bickering which, from the sound, the studio audience adored. Miss Taylor showed the "massive" — Burton's word—69.42 carat diamond she wore on her wedding ring finger.

When Frost asked the actor his recipe for handling a woman, Burton gave a sigh and replied: "Give her diamonds."

For all the glamor, much of the time the Burtons sounded more like the folks next door than the rich and famous.
